#Covid19 त्राहिमाम Trahimam 2020

to

#Covid19vaccination सर्वे सन्तु निरामयाः Sarve Santu Niramayah 2021

We have stepped into 2021, leaving behind one of the worst economic crisis globally impacting the government, businesses, and the citizens due a 'adrishta' (meaning invisible to our naked eyes ; this Sanskrit term Adrishta has been used in Rigveda for invisible biological organisms) species of VIRUS-CORONAVIRUS (Perhaps, the most used microbiological word of 2020!!). Some Astrologers have also predicated about this pandemic already in the end of 2019!!

MASKS, LOCKDOWNS, PRAYERS & VIRTUAL MEETING - A Global Norm

The common event among all nations witnessed was 'Lockdown' and the common thing that was essential commodity was 'Mask'. 'Prayers' were conducted everywhere so that this phase of pandemic ends soon. The COVID-19 pandemic has prompted a global shift in meetings and events, many moving from in-person gatherings to a more 'Virtual' implementation.

Bharat's Covid19 Vaccine 'Sanjeevani' for the World

India has started sending its domestically developed vaccines to several countries.

Countries which received Covid19 Sanjeevani Vaccine Gift :

Bhutan, Nepal, Bangladesh, Myanmar, Maldives, Mauritius, Afganistan, Sri Lanka, Seychelles, Brazil, Morocco, Oman, CARICOM countries,

MAKAR SANKRANTI Oh ! SUN — SHUN MY ENEMIES

Vedas repeatedly emphasize on the blockading or slaying our enemies. In today's situation our enemy is both country (which deliberately spread biological weapons by manipulating the genes of pathogens to spread infection) and pathogenic microorganisms (which kills humans, plants and animals globally every year). Makar Sankranti is the Vedic festival celebrated in the mid-January 14th every year. The Sun enters the zodiac sign of Makara

(Capricorn), i.e., thereby beginning of

'Uttarayana' or it starts moving to the north. It is said that from this day, which signals a change of season. Vedicly, we pray Sun to make change in the evil attitude of our enemies (existing in all forms).

VEDIC SCIENCES & COVID19

During the devastating pandemic Covid19, Vedic Sciences has come to rescue. Globally, people embraced Ayurveda, Gayatri Mantra & Yoga to tackle the menace of Coronavirus thereby boosting immunity & intellect power. It also helped in gaining psychological strength to cope with lockdown phase. Yagna rituals were conducted in many places to curb the menace of covid19.

May 2021 be a recovery year for all of us. May we regain our lost lifestyle by all means with blessing of Universal Sacred Primordial Sound AUM ॐ !!

Nicaragua and Pacific Island states and others...

Brazil President Jair Bolsonaro on Friday thanked Prime Minister Narendra Modi by saying "dhanyavaad" for supplying the "sanjeevani booti" (the vaccine) against the coronavirus to the South American country, which has reported the second-highest death toll from the Covid-19 disease in the world.

In his tweet, Bolsonaro shared a depiction of Lord Hanuman carrying a mountain with vaccines from India to Brazil.

MVIVVU's Woman Empowerment Cell reverberates the dictate of Maharishi Manu "Where Women Are Honored / Worshipped, there Gods resides"

'Women Empowerment Cell' in MVIVVU

Since Vedic times, women empowerment has been remain a key feature in strengthening of Vedic Hindu civilization. The famous ancient law book of Bharat(India)- Manu Smriti (3/56) states that

यत्र नार्यस्तु पूज्यन्ते रमन्ते तत्र देवताः ।
यत्रैतास्तु न पूज्यन्ते सर्वास्तत्राफलाः क्रियाः ॥
"Where Women Are Honored / Worshipped, there Gods resides; And Where They Are Dishonored, All Action Remains Unfruitful."
Maharshi VedVyas International

Virtual Vedic University strives to implement the mantra of Manu Maharaj for Earthly well being.

Recently, in MVIVVU has established a women Empowerment Cell and Dr. Antonietta Cordasco from Italy has been appointed as the Chief of Woman Empowerment Cell.

Moreover, Dr. Barbara Fattorelli has gone way forward and established an organization viz. Rishika Shakti Vedic Woman Organization for woman empowerment in Italy.

Cow Dung based Eco-Friendly 'Vedic Paints'

Union Minister of Micro, Small and Medium Industries Nitin Gadkari on Thursday introduced 'Vedic paint' made of cow dung. The Union Minister informed that the paint will come in distemper and emulsion forms and will dry in only four hours.

Vedic Paint will help in strengthening the Village economy and provide additional income to the farmers.

According to Nitin Gadakari, Vedic Paint will be eco-friendly, non-toxic, anti-bacterial, anti-fungal and washable paint would be available in distemper and emulsion. It will dry in just four hours. This venture will provide an additional income of up to Rs 55,000 to the livestock farmers.

Union Minister Pratap Sarangi said that this eco-friendly product is the first of its kind in the world.

Argentine lawyer Dr, Nancy Gallo uses Vedic Science to resolve conflicts

“Vedic Advocacy for Conflict Resolution in Argentina”

Dr. Nancy Gallo is the author of a new thought, the Vedic Advocacy based on the tripartite structure of knowledge with roots in the Vedic Science of India. Dr Nancy Gallo, a lawyer and Doctorate in Law, based in Argentina has specialized in the Ayurvedic Natural Adjuvance System, Marmani Chikitsa and Pranic Psychotherapy, among other trainings. Her doctoral thesis took seven years to be completed and that has significantly impacted her role as a lawyer, with active participation in the peaceful resolution of conflicts. This work of hers was awarded the “Missionary of Peace” Prize awarded by Action of peace and the Center for Strategic Planning for Social Security, Argentina.

The Vedic lawyer follows a concrete and exhaustive protocol to resolve the conflict with specific rules to follow and with a fundamental premise: KNOWLEDGE (VEDA) of all the components that come into play in any conflict situation. Vedic advocacy not only provides a solution to the specific problem, it is also being educated on another level of consciousness.

‘Vedic Advocacy’ of Dr. Nancy Gallo

The knowledge is structured in consciousness, therefore a small consciousness, will reflect a small knowledge and as the level of consciousness increases, the level of knowledge will increase allowing articulate higher levels of available intelligence, observing the legal conflict from another perspective and with greater ability to capture its solution without violence.

Dr. Nancy states that, “We have created the first University Chair of Vedic Advocacy through which we are going to teach the postgraduate degree called University Diplomacy in Negotiation and Peaceful Conflict Resolution based on Vedic Advocacy and Gandhi precepts, at UAI – University in Buenos Aires. First in Latam!”.

ROOTS OF NEURO AYURVEDIC ASTROLOGY

(A study and analysis of ethical astrology and ancient Ayurveda on neurological disorders)

KVN Savan Kumar

INTRODUCTION

Ayurveda and astrology are deeply connected with each other. Astrology deals with the karmic process of man and to get rid of the cycle of birth and death it is very important to have a sound body and mind only then one can reach out his/her soul. Ayurveda emphasizes that primarily there are three doshas (tridosh) and any imbalance in the basic attributes of these three evils (dosha) leads to various diseases. These doshas are known Vat(wind), Pitta(heat) and kapha(phlegm). In astrology lagna, Sun and Moon corresponds to Vat, Pitta and kapha. Primarily lagna or ascendant deals with body or general strength and weakness of the person. Sun of course deals with Pitta or heat and kapha is represented by Moon. These are the basics of both the subjects as we go deeper into the nature of the disease and its consequences then one must take care of many more factors into account. Charak Samhita is a famous granth (text) on Ayurveda written long back by the legendary physician Charak. In his book he says an Ayurvedacharya, while attending a new patient should always keep in account celestial bodies in the sky and combine this with his perfect knowledge of Ayurveda to know the exact depth of disease and the time it will take to cure.

In Astrology 6th House and its lord indicates disease, 8th House and its lord denotes the longevity of the disease and 2nd House and its lord represents the time, money and inconvenience and suffering of the person by a disease. There are many more factors which also need to be investigated like the influence of malefic planets on these houses and incapability of benefic planets to help the subject or native. The maha dasa and anter dasa at the time of occurring disease at a negative das also gives the indication of onset of disease at an age of the native. The importance of transit can also not be ignored. If the planets and transit are aggravating the negative factors of the chart, then disease could be chronic or fatal depending on the intensity of the chart of the total configuration. One should never run away from life and on the contrary learn to face it boldly. In the realms of multi universes the sojourn of soul is infinite, and nobody has the right to leave it in midway.

What are the neurological diseases?

The manifestations of neurological diseases depend on how and which part of the nervous system is affected – the central or peripheral, or there are combined disorders. The central part includes both brains – the cerebrum and the spinal cord. They process information regarding what is happening in the body, as well as they control and coordinate all its reactions and functions. This applies both to the organism in an internal aspect and to its contacts with the environment. This is implemented with the help of the peripheral part of the nervous system. It is a continuation of the cerebrum and includes the nerves in the organism, their splits / cervical, shoulder, lumbar and other /and nodes /ganglion/. Through them, brain impulses are transmitted to the limbs and various organs, and feedback is returned.

Through them, brain impulses are transmitted to the limbs and various organs, and feedback is returned.

Neurological diseases are disorders that may occur at any place in this chain. The cerebrum, for example, may become inflamed, as the meningitis is an inflammation of the outer layer, and encephalitis – inflammation of the brain matter itself. Many other diseases are associated with the cerebrum – atherosclerosis, depression, phobia, epilepsy, autism, personality disorders and so on. The most common inflammations of the peripheral part of the nervous system are radiculitis and plexitis, which may be in the cervical, chest or waist area, as the pain block the movement of the hands or legs. One nerve may be affected, and this condition is called neuritis, and if a few nerves are affected, it is called polyneuritis.

In Ayurveda, the vital energy Vata is directly responsible for the nervous system – for the transmission of the cerebral signals to the organs, for the senses, feelings and thoughts. It is set at birth with the other two energies – Pitta and Kapha, as each one of them is responsible for specific processes in the organism. All three energies are set in a specific ratio and they maintain a certain balance between them. If one of the energies goes out of balance, then the functions of certain organs get disturbed and the organism develops illnesses. In the case with Vata these are neurological diseases. Vata is responsible for all movements in the body, so without that energy the other two Doshas can't flow in the organism. Thus, the disturbances in Vata can even cause blockages in Pitta and Kapha. And usually when a Dosha goes out of balance it causes imbalances also in the other two. So the Ayurveda specialist has to determine what are the imbalances and the extent of the deviations of the Doshas, in order to be able to prescribe a treatment and so on – a way to restore their natural proportions that are unique for everyone.

HISTORY

All great ancient civilizations centered their cultures on profound systems of astrology, connecting conditions and events on the Earth with cosmic influences deriving from the stars. Whether it is India or China, Egypt or Babylonia, or the Mayas and Incas of America, we find in each case an astrological foundation for their spiritual cultures. Astrology and its measure of sacred time formed the basis of their calendars which, looking to the heavens, sought to organize human life according to celestial forces more certain than our personal desires and calculations. Even the ancient cultures of Europe like the Greeks, Romans, Celts and Germans, had detailed systems of astrology, as have all communities that recognize the sacred nature of the universe.

Similarly, all systems of traditional medicine East and West possess corresponding forms of astrology, which were part of their theory and practice. Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) has the I Ching and Chinese astrology, while the Ayurvedic medicine of India has Vedic astrology. Traditional European medicine going back to the Greeks included western astrological traditions, which were part of pagan traditions overall.

Connecting healing and astrology – or the practice of medical astrology – is one of the deepest and most lasting investigations of civilization. It is as old as all great ancient cultures and their astrologically based rituals to keep human life in harmony with the cosmos. We have long looked to the stars and the heavens for guidance, grace and healing energy, for understanding human existence in a deeper perspective in which we can touch the eternal and the infinite.

VEDIC ASTROLOGY AND AYURVEDIC MEDICINE

Vedic astrology is India's traditional system of reading the stars, the planets and the entire movement of time. It was originally called Vedanga Jyotish, meaning the study of light (Jyoti) as a limb of the Veda (Vedanga). It was also called Jyotirveda, the Veda or 'science of light'. Ayurveda, which means the 'science of life', is the corresponding Vedic system of natural healing for body and mind. Both are living branches of an ancient sacred science that arose in an older era in which humanity had a greater intuitive connection with the sacred universe. Unlike corresponding western traditions, their continuity, though shaken by hostile forces, has remained unbroken. Both these systems are undergoing a renaissance today as we once more learn to look within. Vedic astrology is an extraordinary predictive and counseling tool. There are many wonderful stories of how Vedic astrologers can pinpoint specific events in a person's life with uncanny accuracy. Yet Vedic astrologers also can relate deep wisdom about a person's life purpose, karma and spiritual path.

Similarly, Ayurveda is a precise and comprehensive tool for physical and psychological well-being, optimal health, energy and vitality. There are many instances of Ayurvedic doctors introducing changes in a person's life, from simple dietary or life-style modifications, to special herbs or internal cleansings that can literally rejuvenate us, countering long standing and intractable health problems. These two Vedic systems together in the 'Vedic astrology of healing' or 'Ayurvedic astrology'. Ayurvedic astrology shows us how to optimize both our health and our destiny, our vitality and our karma, so that we can realize our highest potential in life, with our earthly life following the model of heavenly forces and their consciousness-promoting outcomes. Ayurvedic astrology shows how we can heal ourselves through the stars, bringing the energies of the cosmos into our lives so that we can once more touch the universal light and prana.

Sayanadhi Avasthas:-

Planets on account of their incessant movement get into certain state of existence called avasthas. Depending on their position in the chart and the other conditions, Indian astrology classifies the conditions of the planets into 5 different sets of avasthas. They are:

Baladi Avasthas - Set of 5 avasthas

Jagradadi Avasthas - Set of 3 avasthas

Lajjitadi Avasthas - Set of 6 avasthas

Deeptadi Avasthas - Set of 9 avasthas

Sayanadi Avasthas - Set of 12 avasthas

It is a very detailed and complicated study as to how a planet in each of the 5 types of sets of avasthas behaves. Based on that the results given by each planet for each type of the sets of avasthas is taken into consideration while giving predictions.

Fundamentally 3 avasthas are taken into consideration,

Baladi Avasthas - deals with the physical state of body systems

Sayanadi Avasthas - deals with the awareness of Mind

Deeptadi Avasthas - deals with the light of the soul

Sayanadi:

This Avasthas deal with the state of the mind, which constantly propels between the state of rest and activity. for example, we can observe the state of the mind. The energy of the body comes from the food we eat. Intake of food is done in rest and comforts, and this can happen at places such as: swakshetra (home), moola Trikona (work) or in exaltation (picnic/party).

The intrinsic energies of a planet come from swakshetra sign. The energy from which the native executes the work comes from his Moola Trikona sign. The energy from which he succeeds in all activities comes from the state of exaltation.

As we can intake food and energy only when our mind is at rest and comfort In the same way, the planets recharge only when they are stationary, and comfortable i.e in the own sign, in Mool Trikona and in exaltation sign. Jupiter remains in a sign for about a year, and transits Sagittarius once in 12 years. It is stationary in Sagittarius with Sagittarius lagna rising once in 144 years. As a result, it is very rare for a soul to be born with this combination. When this occurs in Pisces, spiritual charging takes place. In Sagittarius, recharging of dharma takes place. When it occurs in Cancer, recharging of Sukha takes place. Once every 12 years, when Jupiter transits Sagittarius, and the recharging of dharma takes place.

Subset of Sayanadi Avasthas:

Sayana - Lying down, resting

Upavesana - Sitting down

Netrapani - Crying

Prakasa - Shinning

Gaman - Going

Aagamana - Returning

Sabhaa - Being in assembly

Aagama : acquiring

Bhojana : Eating

Nritya Lipsaa : Longing to dance

Kautuka : Being Eager

Nidra Sleeping

Formula for calculating the Sayanadi Avastha of a planet

‘C’ - Nakshatra number occupied by the planet (1 for aswini, 2 for bharani etc.

‘P’ - Planet whose avastha we have to calculate (1 for Sun, 2 for Moon, 3 for Mars, 4 for Mercury, 5 for Jupiter, 6 for Venus and 7 for Saturn).

‘A’ - Index of the Navamsa occupied by the planet in rasi.

‘M’ - Constellation occupied by Moon.

‘G’ - Ghati running at birth.

‘L’ - Rasi occupied by Lagna (1 for Aries, 2 for Taurus) and so on).

Compute $(C \times P \times A) + M + G + L$ and then divide it by 12 and take the remainder.

Using the resulting number as the avastha index and referring to table given above, we find out the avastha of the planet.

Results of Planet based on Sayana Avasthas:

Sun : When the Sayana Avastha is full, it results in digestive deficiency, many diseases, stoutness of legs, ulcer in the Anus and heart strokes.

Moon : When the Sayana Avastha is full, it results the native with honor, sluggishness, sexual lust, financial destruction.

Mars : When the Sayana Avastha is full, it results in wounds, itches and ulcer.

Mercury : When the Sayana Avastha is full, in Lagna it makes the native lame and eyes reddish, in other houses the native will be addicted to licentious.

Jupiter : When the Sayana Avastha is full, it makes native strong but speaks in whispers, tawny in complexion and is afraid from enemies.

Venus : When the Sayana Avastha is full, it makes native strong, short temper, bereft of wealth.

Saturn : When the Sayana Avastha is full, it results in hunger and thirst, disease in boyhood and later in life become wealthy.

Asafoetida (Ferula asafoetida) is the dried sap obtained from the roots of Ferula plants While it's native to Afghanistan and Iraq, asafoetida is commonly used in Indian cuisine where it's dried, ground into a spice, and referred to as hing In addition to flavoring food, asafoetida has also been used for centuries around the world for its perceived health benefits This article examines the benefits, downsides, and uses of asafoetida.

What is asafoetida?

Technically a gum-resin, asafoetida is a hard substance that's extracted from large, carrot-shaped roots of the Ferula plants. Once extracted, it's commonly dried, ground into a coarse, yellow powder, and used for either culinary or medicinal purposes. As a spice, asafoetida is known for its strong, pungent odor, which is due to its high concentration of sulfur compounds. In fact, due to its unpleasant smell, this seasoning is sometimes referred to as stinking gum. However, when cooked, its flavor and smell become much more palatable and are often described as being like leeks, garlic, and even meat. In addition to adding a distinct flavor to dishes, asafoetida has been used in traditional medicine for centuries. For example, in Ayurvedic medicine, hing is used to aid digestion and gas, as well as treat bronchitis and kidney stones. While during the Middle Ages, the dried gum was sometimes worn around the neck to help ward off infection and disease. Yet despite being used for thousands of years, many of the traditional uses of asafoetida have not been proven by modern science. Asafoetida is sulfurous smelling gum-resin that's extracted from Ferula plants. It's traditionally ground into a powder and used either for its proposed medicinal qualities or as a spice to add a savory flavor to food.

Potential benefits of asafoetida

While research is limited, asafoetida may offer some health benefits.

Good source of antioxidants

Asafoetida has been found to be a good source of antioxidants. These plant compounds help protect your cells against potential damage caused by unstable molecules called free radicals. As a result, antioxidants may also help protect against chronic inflammation, heart disease, cancer, and type 2 diabetes. Specifically, asafoetida has been shown to contain high amounts of phenolic compounds, such as tannins and flavonoids, which are known for their potent antioxidant effects. While test-tube and animal studies have found asafoetida to exhibit anti-inflammatory and antioxidant activity, more research needs to be done on its potential antioxidant effects in humans. Additionally, as asafoetida is used in such small amounts when cooking, it's unclear if culinary use of the spice would still provide these potential benefits to health. May be good for digestion. One of the most common uses of asafoetida is helping with indigestion. In one 30-day study in 43 adults with moderate to severe indigestion, those taking 250 mg capsules containing asafoetida twice a day reported significant improvements in bloating, digestion, and overall quality of life compared with the placebo group. This study was funded by the company that produced the supplement, so it may have impacted results. Asafoetida has also been shown to help boost digestion by increasing the activity of digestive enzymes. Specifically, it may increase the release of bile from the liver, which is needed for the digestion of fat. While the spice is also frequently used to prevent or reduce gas after eating, there's currently a lack of research to support this effect.

May help reduce symptoms of IBS

Irritable bowel syndrome (IBS) is a chronic gastrointestinal (GI) condition that's characterized by abdominal pain or discomfort, bloating, gas, and constipation, diarrhea, or both. Due to its potential effects on digestion, asafoetida is thought to help reduce symptoms associated with IBS. Two small studies in adults with IBS found a significant improvement in reported IBS symptoms after 2 weeks of taking asafoetida supplements. Yet another study found no effect of the supplement on IBS symptoms. Overall, the research on whether asafoetida may be effective for managing IBS symptoms is quite limited. However, one less direct way that asafoetida may be beneficial for individuals with IBS is as a substitute for onion and garlic in cooking. Onion and garlic contain high amounts of fructans — indigestible, fermentable carbs that can cause GI distress in some individuals with IBS. As asafoetida provides a flavor similar to onions and garlic, it could be a good option for those who need to avoid or limit their consumption of these high fructans food.

Other possible benefits

While studies on asafoetida are quite limited, early research suggests that it may have additional benefits, including:

- Antibacterial, antifungal, and antimicrobial effects. Test-tube studies have found asafoetida may help protect against potential pathogens, such as various strains of Streptococcus bacteria
- Help lower blood pressure. Asafoetida may help lower blood pressure by relaxing blood vessels. However, research is very limited and has only been studied in animals
- Anticancer effects. Animal and test-tube studies have shown a potential for asafoetida to help stop the growth and spread of certain cancer cells, including breast and liver cancer
- Protect brain health. Several animal studies have found asafoetida may help protect against memory loss and nerve damage in the brain
- Help ease asthma symptoms. Mice studies have shown asafoetida to have a relaxing effect on airway smooth muscles, which is important in the treatment of asthma. While promising, this effect hasn't been proven in humans
- Help lower blood sugar levels. One study in rats found 50 mg/kg of asafoetida extract to reduce fasting blood sugar levels. However, this effect hasn't been studied in humans

Overall, while animal and test-tube studies suggest many potential benefits of this pungent spice, there's currently a lack of evidence in humans to support these claims. It's also worth noting that these studies use a concentrated form of asafoetida rather than the amounts typically used when cooking. As a result, culinary use of the spice may have minimal effects. Asafoetida is rich in antioxidants and may provide multiple health benefits, particularly for digestive health. However, as research is currently limited, studies in humans are needed to confirm these effects.

Potential side effects of asafoetida

While research on the safety of asafoetida in humans is limited, amounts of asafoetida that are typically used in cooking are thought to be generally safe for most individuals. One study in humans found 250 mg twice per day for 30 days was well tolerated by the participants. However, animal studies suggest large doses of asafoetida may cause swelling of the mouth, gas, diarrhea, anxiety, and headaches. Furthermore, a study in mice suggests possible toxicity at doses greater than 455 mg per pound (1,000 mg per kg) of body weight. Additionally, due to a lack of research, asafoetida isn't recommended for women who are pregnant or breastfeeding, or young children. Because it may lower blood pressure or thin the blood, people on blood pressure medications or blood thinning drugs should avoid asafoetida supplements. When used as a spice, asafoetida is often mixed with either wheat or rice flour. As a result, asafoetida (or hing) products may not be gluten-free. This can be a concern when dining out at a restaurant that uses hing powder in their dishes.

If you have any questions or concerns, it's important to consult with your healthcare provider before trying asafoetida. When used in small amounts for cooking, asafoetida is likely safe for most individuals. However, due to a lack of research, asafoetida may not be safe for women who are pregnant or breastfeeding or when consumed in large doses.

How to use asafoetida

Asafoetida has been used for thousands of years to give flavor to dishes. In fact, ancient Romans used to store it in jars along with pine nuts to be used as a seasoning. Today, ground asafoetida powder, often labeled as hing, can be found online as well as at some Indian grocery stores. If you follow a gluten-free diet, make sure to look for hing powder that's blended with rice flour instead of wheat. For culinary uses of hing powder, it's recommended to incorporate it into hot oil or another source of fat to help reduce its sulfurous flavor and smell. In Indian cuisine, hing powder is often paired with other spices like turmeric or cumin to provide a savory, umami flavor to lentil- or vegetable-based dishes. In France, it's sometimes used to add a boost of flavor to steaks. As a supplement, asafoetida is available in capsule form. While one study found 250 mg twice per day helped reduce indigestion, overall research on what's a safe and effective dose is lacking. Asafoetida or hing powder can add a savory, umami quality to cooked dishes. While asafoetida is also sold in capsule form as a supplement, there's currently insufficient evidence on what's a safe and effective dose.

The Bottom Line

Asafoetida is a dried plant sap that's been used for centuries for its potential health benefits and unique flavor. It has been shown to be a good source of antioxidants. Still, while limited research suggests multiple benefits, particularly for digestive health, there's a need for more research especially in humans. Still, when ground into a powder, hing can be a good addition to your spice cabinet. Just a small pinch can add a savory, umami quality to dishes, such as curries, lentil dal, soups, and stews.

CONCLUSION

It is evident that ethical astrology and ancient Ayurveda has direct link to each other, which will impact human body either positively or negatively based on planetary positions. Ayurveda will help us in healing many diseases which we can predicted through ethical astrology. Native is suffering from neurological disorder as analyzed in above chart description. Though Sayanadhi avastha for various planets calculated specially mercury has chesta bala which is full strength but avastha is return (agama) and mercury posited in wrong position due to that native suffering from many days. Kota chakra and Tripataki chakra shows clear indication that Mercury has less strength.

MODERN ASTROLOGY & EDUCATIONAL PROSPECTS

ANALYSIS OF THE IMPACT OF EDUCATION RANGING FROM A COMMON MAN TO A NATIONAL POLITICAL LEADER

Padmaja CS

MBA (HR), MA - Astrology, (PhD-Astrology)

INTRODUCTION

“There is no better boat than a horoscope to help a man cross over the sea of life.” Varaha Mihira

Aptly said, from time immemorial, India, has laid a great emphasis on quality learning and education no matter what the situation be. One of the most acclaimed systems of education, was the Gurukula System, a residential schooling system which dates back to the Vedic Period i.e. around 5000 BC. Students were taught various subjects like Languages, Science, Mathematics, Vedas, Vedangas, Astrology, Astronomy, Ayurveda, Sankya Shastra, Politics, Economics, Sociology, Fine arts, etc., and the students were taught how to live a disciplined and cultured life.

This article is based on the study of various books authored by Dr. B V Raman, fondly known as the Father of Modern Astrology. According to Dr. B V Raman, Founder of Indian Council of Astrological Sciences, education is a tool which can be used to impart

Based on the positions of the planets at the time of birth, is it possible to analyze the educational prospects of children in different streams of education?

The answer is -YES.

Dr. BV Raman in his book 'PLANETARY INFLUENCES ON HUMAN AFFAIRS'¹ gives a vivid insight on the influences of the planets on human beings. In this book Dr. B V Raman says that one of the most important uses of Astrology is the direction of education and selection of a profession. Modern education will not be able to foretell about this to the parents but an astrologer can discover the very day when the child is born, whether there would be any aptitude for physics or philosophy. Research has proved that all living beings are subject to cosmic influences. The rays from the planets and stars like ultra-violet, infra-red rays & electrical wavelengths penetrate the human body which primarily has an effect on the emotional, mental and physical body.

Predicting the educational prospects of the child is quite a challenge and is also the most sought after topic in predictive astrology

In the present day scenario, we see Engineers doing functional jobs and vice versa. Astrologically, based on the placement of planets & potentialities in the horoscope, it is possible to declare the strong area of interests in which the native can excel. It helps both the parents and the children to choose the right stream of education that would suit and interest them.

According to Sage Parasara, who authored Brihat Parasara Hora Shastra², primary house for education is seen from the 4th house. 4th house signifies dharma, mother, education, comfort, immovable property, vehicles. To analyze the effects of the 4th bhava, analysis has to be done on the general strength of the bhava, karaka, lord of the 4th and occupants.

सुखेशे सप्तमे जातो बहुविद्यासमन्वितः ।

पित्रार्जितधनत्यागी सभायां मूकवद् भवेत् ॥४३॥ - BPHS Ch 24, Sloka 43

If the 4th lord is in 7th, the native will be endowed with high degree of education and will not be able to enjoy paternal properties.

यन्त्रमन्त्रौ तथा विद्यां बुद्धेश्चैव प्रबन्धकम् ।

पुत्रराज्यापभ्रंशादीन् पश्येत् पुत्रालयाद् बुधः ॥६॥ - BPHS Ch 11, Sloka 6

The learned person should conclude from 5th House the following: amulets, sacred spells, learning, knowledge, sons, royalty (or authority), fall of position etc.

सुखेशे रन्ध्रभावस्थे गृहादिसुखवर्जितः ।

पित्रोः सुखं भवेदल्पं जातः क्लीबसमो भवेत् ॥४४॥ - BPHS Ch 24, Sloka 44

If the 4th lord is placed in 8th, native will face lot of difficulties and will face many obstacles in education.

There are two aspects to knowledge: Scholarship, literary power, spiritual knowledge and realization of self. Strong Jupiter placed well in Vargottama, well aspected, native becomes a great lecturer and orator. Native becomes a great philosopher when lord of 2nd, Mercury, is in deep exaltation and Jupiter is in Navamsa of Leo.³

Jupiter signifies knowledge, Mercury, intelligence, Moon, the Mind and Mars, logic.

- The 2nd, 4th, and 5th houses indicate the level, status and creativity & manner of education.
- The 3rd house indicates mental inclination, memory, specialization, confidence & concentration.
- The 6th house indicates success in examination and competition.
- The 9th and 10th houses indicate ambition, higher education & Profession.
- The 11th for fulfilment of ambitions in education.

Hence the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 9th, 10th and 11th houses must be favorably placed for conferring & determining area of good education. All planets have an equal role in determining the stream of education for the native based on their placement, conjunction, strength etc.

Levels of education based on the houses:

Education is generally ascertained from the 4th house, 4th lord, Vidyakaraka-Mercury, or Jupiter.

2nd house: House of family and basic education. It indicates, early childhood and primary/initial education from the mother or family members.

4th house: House of mother, comforts, mental stability. Native's grasping strength depends on the strength of 4th house, its lord and occupants. This house represents education upto higher secondary level.

5th house: House of creativity, purva punya and memory. 5th house indicates the analytical ability of the native. This house represents the education upto degree level.

9th house: House of higher education, father. 9th indicates education beyond degree level.

Planets influencing the 2nd, 4th, 5th, lagna lord of D24, will also signify the native's educational interests and pursuits.

Educational Prospects on the basis of methodologies of Dr. B V Raman⁸

Bhava / Planets	Remarks
4 th house indicates	Intelligence
Malefics in 4 th	Breaks in education
Jupiter in 4 th ,10 th	High Level Education
Mercury in Kendra or Venue in 2 nd , house	Good knowledge of Astrology
2 nd lord well placed	Good speaker and lecturer
Mars in 2 nd and Mercury in Kendra	Good mathematician or an Engineer
Sun & Mars as lord of 2 nd , conjoined with Venus or Jupiter	Proficiency in logic and mental sciences.
Jupiter & Venus in Kendra aspected by Mercury	Good insights into philosophical subjects
Jupiter and Venus in Kendra	Versatile genius
4 th house lord & Jupiter, if free from the influence of the lords of 3,6,11,	Sound educational career
Lagna lord in 5 th with 5 th lord, un-afflicted & Sun, and Moon in 4 th	Native will interested in Political Science, He will be a Minister & blessed with Political prosperity and growth.

National Political Leaders and Education

Leadership qualities are gained through education. The 9th house in the 'Bha-Chakra' is ruled by Jupiter and it is the house of Dharma, higher education, higher knowledge, publicity etc. It also signifies law, judiciary, legal, emigration and immigration, import and exports of the nation. A Political leader is expected to have a through knowledge of all these and needs to be well versed. Right education plays a vital in executing these functions efficiently for a National Leader.

Presenting few case studies covering all the points discussed above.

Sat	Ketu

	Ven Rahu		Sun
	D9		Mars
Moon	Sat, Mer, Jup	Ketu	Asc

Balance of Rahu Dasa @ birth : 14yrs, 6months, 29days.

Analysis:

2nd House, lord of 2nd : Vaksthanadipathi, Sun is exalted in 10th with Mercury-signifactor of logic and intellect and Venus-karaka for poetic and original writing skills. 2nd house has the aspect of Jupiter, which made him the master of logic with a sweet tongue, which enabled him to convince and conquer thousands of his opponents in various discussions on dharma and advaita. Jupiter's aspect on Moon indicates his profound spirituality.

Jupiter aspects 4th house along with Sun, Mercury & Venus. So the 4th house is rendered the most powerful and beneficial by the aspects (drushtis) of (i) Aatma-kaaraka (significator of Soul) Sun (7th drushti); (2) Vidya-kaaraka (significator of education, intellect and skills) Mercury (7th drushti); (3) Kavya-kaaraka (significator of poetic and writer skills) Venus (7th drushti); (4) Jnana-kaarka (significator of wisdom, knowledge) divine Jupiter (9th drushti) (5) the mighty and fiery Mars (8th drushti). All these five mighty influences combined together on his 4th house made Sankara a Sakala Sasthra Parangatha , a matchless super-master of all learning; he was a prodigy and unique in all aspects of learning.

4th lord Venus-Kavya karaka, placed in 10th aspects the 4th house along with Sun-Atma karaka and Mercury-Vidyakaraka. Jupiter-Gnanakaraka and Mars-karaka for courage, also aspect the 4th house.

All these mighty planetary influences on 4th house made him a great Sanskrit scholar, master of all Shastras, Srividhya upasaka, proficient in Vedas and vedangas etc., which is evidently seen in his scholarly writings. Sri Shankara was a child prodigy and was known as ‘Sakala Shastra & Srividya Parangata’.

Case Study 2 Horoscope of Mr. Albert Einstein⁴

Analysis:

Gnanakaraka Jupiter, placed in 9th has blessed Einstein as ‘Cosmic Preceptor’ & ‘Master of Wisdom’. Jupiter rules the Akasha tatwa (space) is aspecting the Lagna – Gemini, which is an intellectual sign from Aquarius, a mystical sign, which helped in streamlining his energies in developing the Theory of Relativity, one of the two pillars of modern physics in addition to Quantum Mechanics which had an influence on the philosophy of science and help the mankind in an enormous way!

Debilitated Moon placed in 8th house in the natural zodiac, Einstein had the ability to think deeply with intensity. Debilitated Moon indicates turbulent mind which acts as a stimulant to thought process of the mind. Moon and Mercury are in trine with each other indicating harmony between mind and intellect. This helped him to interpret the most complex aspects with logic and presenting the findings to the world!

Yogas⁶

- Neecha Banga Raja Yoga: Mercury, lagna lord and lord of 4th house is debilitated but debilitation is cancelled due to conjunction with exalted Venus in Pisces. He was very intellectual and won the Nobel Prize at the age of 42.
- Buddhi Chaturya Yoga: Lord of 5th Venus being exalted, helped Einstein to revolutionize physics in depth.
- Saraswathi Yoga : Placement of Jupiter, Mercury and Venus in Kendra and Trikona, blessed him with extraordinary intelligence, wisdom and grasping power.
- Pravajra Yoga: Conjunction of 4 planets in 10th made him achieve success in his chosen field.
- Dharma-Karmadhipati Parivartana Yoga: exchange of houses between lord of 10th and 9th, Jupiter and Saturn ensured that he was very fortunate and obtained success through right and honorable actions.

Research & Development

8th house signifies research. Exalted Mars which signifies energy, stamina, vigor of a person is conjoined with Rahu, which signifies research, ability to understand deeply the complicate and intricate areas of life, occult science, cosmos etc., gives an insight to his interest in research and innovative skills.

Bhavartha Ratnakara

Composed by great sage Ramanuja and translated by Dr. B V Raman gives a summation of yogas for educational prospects.

Education Yogas - Chapter 2, Stanza 1 - 10

1. Venus or Mercury in 4th makes the native proficient in music and astrology respectively
2. If Rahu conjoins either Sun or Mercury in 5th, the native becomes an expert in astrology and dealing with poisons
3. A Sun-Mercury combination in 2nd makes one a good astrologer. If this combination is aspected by Saturn, the native becomes a mathematician
4. Sun and Mars in 2nd makes one a logician. Saturn, Mercury and Sun in 5th makes the native an expert in philosophy

6. Rahu in 4th confers long life to the mother. If in 5th, the native becomes an expert in understanding inner meanings of things
7. Jupiter in 2nd, especially when that happens to be either Sagittarius, Pisces or Cancer, makes one an expert in the Vedas.
8. Its fortunate to have Jupiter and the 2nd lord associated in a quadrant or trine
9. The presence of Moon and Mars in 2nd makes one a priest
10. Saturn in the 2nd makes one vindictive and a fool

Studies in Jaimini Astrology

In Jaimini Astrology⁷ author gives a few combinations for proficiency in various branches of knowledge as illustrated in the table below.

Karakamsha for Education	Proficiency
Jupiter or placed in 5 th from it	Grammer, Vedas and Vedangas
Mercury or placed in 5 th from it	Mimamsa
Mars or placed in 5 th from it	High legal education
Moon or placed in 5 th from it	Musician, literature
Ketu or placed in 5 th from it	Mathematician
When all the above combinations are aspected by Jupiter, native becomes a versatile genius

Karakamsa refers to the navamsa (and/or other divisional charts) where the atmakaraka is placed and such a sign is treated as the karakamsa lagna the real self, the soul and the first house for determining all things connected to deep inner desires and creation cause itself.

Stream of Learning

As per How to Judge A Horoscope (Vol-1 & Vol2)⁹, various combinations have been considered to evaluate the stream of interest in learning by a native. Learning capabilities of the native should be judged by considering the 4th house and Jupiter. Some of the combinations listed below are indicative of the inclinations towards different branches of learning by a native.

Planets in 4 th house & 4 th house lord placement	Educational stream
Venus	Proficiency in Music
Mercury	Proficient in Astrology, Educationist or Diplomat
Sun & Moon	Political science, metaphysics and psychology
Sun & Mercury	Proficiency in Mathematics
Sun, Venus, Mercury	Proficiency in Poetry
Sun, Mars, Mercury	Law and Logic
Jupiter	Vedas and Vedangas

The inherent nature of the planets connected with the 4th house, either as the lord, positioned, conjunct or aspected, one has to infer the type of education one is likely to get.

Planet	:	Signification / Type of education
Sun	:	King and the ruler, religious education and spiritual pursuits
Moon	:	Wavering mind, access to reading and higher education
Mars	:	Warrior & Practical man
Mercury	:	Thinker and the expert, gains knowledge in many subjects and succeeds in learning music, literature and scientific inventions and discoveries.
Jupiter	:	Priest, spiritualist, judge and performs religious ceremonies
Venus	:	Poet, philosopher, learns much under spiritual preceptors
Saturn	:	Statesman, lawyer and leader
Rahu	:	Diplomat, if well placed helps in spiritual evolution
Ketu	:	Prophet and the seer

Ketu	Meteorology, Computer programming & languages, Microbiology (in association with Jupiter)	Electronics media, Metaphysics	Languages, Mysticism, Philosophy

Conclusion:

How to choose right education stream through astrology

- Identify the planets influencing the 5th house and 5th lord to find the area of interest in the child.
- Identify the planets influencing 2nd house, 4th house and 9th house and lords of these houses. This will give an idea about a certain pattern and the level of education one can accomplish.
